EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Sumit Bhattacharya on 05/17/2006. See interview summary for details.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please cancel claims 11-14.

Please amend claim 15-20 as follows:

15. A fault tolerant system comprising:

a first engine;

a second engine;

a computer readable memory that stores instructions that when executed by said first and second engine cause the fault tolerant system to:

designate said first engine as an active engine and said second engine as a standby engine;

determine if said active engine and said standby engine are executing different versions of an application software;

designate said first engine as an standby engine to the second engine and receive run state updates from the second engine;

upgrade the application on the first engine.

16. The system of claim 15, said instructions further causing said first and second engine to:
register the work units at the standby engine.

17. The system of claim 15, said instructions further causing said first and second engine to:
send a step-up signal from the active engine to the standby engine with a description of work units.

Art Unit: 2114

18. The system of claim 15, wherein the application software comprises work units.

19. The system of claim 15, said instructions further causing said first and second engine to: send a description of work units from said active engine to said standby engine.

20. The system of claim 15, said instructions further causing said first and second engine to:
send database activities from said active engine to said standby engine.
